"great for her confidence"

"He loved last week and you were both wonderful, such a joy to hear you praising him and giggling with him"

Drama Workshops' clubs are full of fun and laughter. The children use their imaginations with the help of sounds and music to create scenes and wonderful characters. They learn to work on their own as well as in groups. Drama really helps to build children's confidence in speaking in front of others and expressing themselves both physically and vocally.
